

RIVER PLACE MUNICIPAL UTILITY DISTRICT

The River Place Municipal Utility District (the "MUD") is in the extraterritorial jurisdiction of the City of Austin in Travis County, Texas. The District is a political subdivision of the State of Texas as authorized by Article XVI, Section 59 of the Texas Constitution. The District was created in 1985. The District is governed by a board of five Directors who are elected to staggered four year terms.

The Directors have responsibility regarding MUD operations and are empowered by State of Texas Law to make decisions in areas such as levying MUD taxes, issuing bonds, and awarding construction and other contracts. As required, the MUD is also responsible for drinking and fire water supply; wastewater treatment; storm water control; irrigation; recycling and solid waste disposal; development and maintenance of parks and recreation areas; fire fighting; and public safety.

Unless otherwise indicated at the Sun Tree Park Bulletin Board located in the pavilion, the regular District Board Meeting is held at 2:00 p.m. on the fourth Tuesday of each month at the River Place Country Club. Time is allotted near the beginning of the meeting for resident communication. Residents wishing to comment must sign-up 15 minutes before the beginning of the meeting. Participation at meetings by River Place homeowners is enthusiastically encouraged by the Board.
